

Embrace the art of open-fire cooking and elevate your outdoor entertaining with the BF 60 Open Grill BBQ Fireplace.

Handcrafted in Spain with high-quality materials, this spacious grill allows you to sear steaks, grill vegetables, and infuse flavours like a BBQ pro.

FRONT

TOP

SIDE

|                   |                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| MATERIAL   | High Quality Welded Steel                                                                                                                                                            |
| BRICKS     | Firebrick Base                                                                                                                                                                       |
| GRILL      | Stainless Argentinian grill with grease collector, adjustable to 4 heights                                                                                                           |
| FINISH     | Black High Temperature Paint                                                                                                                                                         |
| WEIGHT     | 95kg                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| INCLUSIONS | BBQ Smoke ShieldPaella pan support, adjustable to 4 heights (Max capacity: Ø 60cm)BBQ & Oven GrillsWooden Grill HandlesAdditional Paint CanHeat Resistant Gloves |